Big Ball To-Night.

A great many tables have been reserved for the big Japanese fete that will be given at the Richmond Hotel this evening at 9:30 o'clock in the ball-room, under the direction of Mile Nora White. The decorations will be an artistic triumph of flowers and colored lights, and vases of spring blossoms will be arranged on the tables scattered about the space in the centre cleared for dancing. Several bundred people will be present and fashionable society is looking forward with great eagerness to the event. Mile White will wear a charming Oriental costume, and has requested that all men taking part in the dancing will wear evening clothes, no Japanese costume being necessary for the guests attending the fete.
